

INTERMOUNTAIN RATE DECISION

Federal Supreme Court Sustains Commerce Commission.

HAS RIGHT TO FIX TARIFFS

Unanimous Opinion of Highest Tribunal Also Declares Valid Long and Short Haul Clause of the Interstate Commerce Law—Effect of the Ruling Will Benefit Western Cities.

Washington, June 23.—The interstate commerce commission's so called intermountain rate orders were sustained as valid by the supreme court, which held, at the same time, that the long and short haul clause of the interstate commerce law is constitutional. Both had been attacked by the transcontinental railroads.

The defunct commerce court, passing over the constitutional question, had annulled the orders on the ground that the commission had no authority to issue "blanket" or "zone" orders and might act only on the reasonableness of specific rates.

The effect of the intermountain rate orders is that such Western cities as Reno, Spokane and Phoenix will be forced to pay upon their freight from the East the regular rate through to the Pacific coast and then also another rate from the Pacific back to their stations, because the railroads are competing with water borne traffic around Cape Horn or through the Panama canal.

How Lines Can Charge. They will pay, however, certain increases over the normal rates from certain zones. Thus the railroads may charge no more than the regular rate on shipments originating in the territory west of a vertical line drawn through St. Paul.

They, however, may charge an increase of 7 per cent on those originating between St. Paul and Chicago; not more than 15 per cent on those between Chicago and Pittsburg and not more than 25 per cent on those between Pittsburg and the Atlantic seaboard.

Those increases the commission prescribed as reasonable because of the condition of the water competition.

As a result of the decision all question is removed as to the right of the commission, not only to pass on the reasonableness of a lower rate for a haul to a more distant city than to a nearer one in the same direction, but to fix how much the difference may be.

Can Fix Rates by Zones. It recognizes the power of the commission to fix such rates by zones, as distinguished from taking up the conditions surrounding each point of shipment in the United States.

Chief Justice White announced the unanimous decision of the court. He said the case turned largely upon the construction and validity of the long and short haul clause in the fourth section of the interstate commerce act as amended in 1910.

His conclusion was that the amendment in 1910 transferred from the railroads to the commission the power hitherto reposed by congress in the railroads to determine what exemptions should be made from the general prohibition against charging less for a long haul than for a short haul. He said it was valid for congress to allow the railroads to exercise the power it was valid for congress to let the commission exercise it.

COMMITTED WITHOUT BAIL

Alleged Slayer of Four Enters Plea of Not Guilty.

Boston, June 23.—A plea of not guilty was entered by Lawrence Robinson, alleged slayer of three persons at Grand Rapids, Mich., when arraigned charged with the murder of Police Inspector Thomas F. Norton. Robinson was committed without bail to await a continued hearing June 27.

Norton was shot and killed in a Boylston street restaurant Friday evening as he was about to arrest Robinson for the murder of three jewelry store clerks at Grand Rapids. Robinson was captured after a revolver battle with the police in which he received three wounds.

A letter threatening death to the superintendent of police if Robinson was sent to the chair was received by Superintendent Pierce. It was postmarked from Milwaukee. The writing was on a card in the four corners of which were sketched a black hand, a dripping dagger, a bomb and a symbol that could not be ciphered.

ALLOWED ADDITIONAL PAY

Comptroller Downey Interprets Militia Act of Last Winter.

Washington, June 23.—Comptroller Downey of the treasury, interpreting the militia act of Feb. 16, 1914, decided that officers and men of the naval militia are entitled to 10 per cent additional pay when on sea duty under conditions where officers of the regular navy are allowed the additional pay.

BRYAN DEFENDS PENDING TREATY

Replies to Criticism of Pact With Colombia.

HOPES FOR FAVORABLE ACTION

Secretary of State Issues Statement Dealing With Proposed Treaty to Settle Differences Between the United States and Colombia Over the Separation of Panama.

Washington, June 23.—Criticism of the proposed treaty to settle differences between the United States and Colombia over the separation of Panama brought a formal statement from Secretary Bryan defending the clause expressing "sincere regret" on the part of the United States that anything should have occurred to mar the friendly relations between the two countries.

The expression "honest regret," Mr. Bryan said, was used in the memorandum drafted during the Taft administration on which the present negotiations as well as those which had failed previously were based.

Despite opposition in the senate Mr. Bryan was hopeful that the treaty would be favorably reported and ratified. Members of the foreign relations committee expected that correspondence in the archives of the state department bearing on the treaty would reach the committee Wednesday. It will be referred to a subcommittee and made public.

It is said that this correspondence will show that at one stage of the negotiations with Colombia during the Taft administration the United States proposed to submit the dispute to arbitration with the knowledge that a verdict in favor of Colombia would mean a judgment for at least $40,000,000. Secretary Bryan's statement follows:

Bryan Quotes Treaty.

"Article 1 of the treaty now before the senate reads as follows:

"The government of the United States of America, wishing to put at rest all controversies and differences with the republic of Colombia arising out of the events from which the present situation on the Isthmus of Panama resulted, expresses, in its own name and in the name of the people of the United States, sincere regret that anything should have occurred to interrupt or to mar the relations of cordial friendship that had so long subsisted between the two nations.

"The government of the republic of Colombia, in its own name and in the name of the Colombian people, accepts this declaration in the full assurance that every obstacle to the restoration of complete harmony between the two countries will thus disappear.

"In what is known as the Dubois memorandum, made during the Taft administration, which presented the basis upon which he was authorized to negotiate a treaty, the following language is used:

"The government and the people of the United States honestly regret anything should have ever occurred to mar in any way, the long and sincere friendship that existed for nearly a century between Colombia and the United States, and the latter country has, for years, earnestly desired to remove the ill feeling aroused in Colombia by the separation of Panama."

"It will be seen from a comparison of the two paragraphs that they are identical in meaning and almost identical in language."

FORTY HURT IN COLLISION

Electric Car on Lake Shore Road Crashes Into Work Train.

Sandusky, O., June 23.—Forty persons were injured, several probably fatally, when an eastbound limited car on the Lake Shore electric railroad collided with a work train standing on a siding near here.

Passengers said the switch connecting the siding with the main track was open when the car struck it.

Old Iron Authority Dies.

Philadelphia, June 23.—James M. Swank, former vice president and general manager of the American Iron and Steel association and widely known as an authority on iron and steel, is dead at his home here of oedema of the lungs, aged eighty-three years.

LABOR IS EXEMPTED AGAIN

House Adopts Provision in Appropriation Bill.

Washington, June 23.—The house again went on record for exempting labor unions from prosecution under the anti-trust laws.

A provision in the sundry civil appropriation bill appropriating $300,000 for enforcement of the anti-trust laws was adopted after a sharp and protracted political debate.

HANNA AND PARTY IN NORWAY

North Dakota Centennial Delegation Feted on Arrival at Bergen.

Fargo, N. D., June 23.—Governor Hanna and several hundred Norwegian residents of this state, who sailed from New York June 12, reached Bergen, Norway, according to a cablegram received here. They had a fine passage and were given a splendid reception by delegations from Bergen and Christiania. The Lincoln memorial statue, the gift of this state, will be presented to the government of Norway on July 4.

MAYO STARTS FUND FOR SURGERY HOME

Endowment of $500,000 for Institution at Washington.

Philadelphia, June 23.—Led by Dr. Charles H. Mayo of Rochester, Minn., the famous surgeon, the American College of Surgeons, assembled here, started a $500,000 endowment fund to be contributed by all the members for the establishment of a permanent home of surgery in Washington, D. C.

It was said at the close of the meeting that the subscriptions received had totaled more than $100,000 inside of one hour. Dr. J. M. T. Finney, president, said that the endowment fund would reach at least $1,000,000 soon.

Subscription cards, placing the signer to give $500 in five years, were passed around and it was resolved that any surgeon giving that sum would be entitled to life membership in the college.

Higher standards of surgery is the aim of the college, according to Dr. Edwin Martin of this city.

TWIN CITIES TO BENEFIT

Probable Effect of Rate Decision by Supreme Court.

St. Paul, June 23.—The federal supreme court decision upholding the interstate commerce commission's order in the intermountain rate case is expected to afford some important benefits to St. Paul.

The commission's order places rates from the Twin Cities territory to Spokane on a parity with those to the Puget sound cities.

When such rates are effective St. Paul and Minneapolis wholesalers and manufacturers feel certain that merchants of Spokane and the adjacent territory will buy here instead of the East and have the orders freight hauled by boats.

The order of the commission, which has been upheld, will permit of a big reduction in rates from the Northwest to Spokane. This means that competition with water rates via the Panama canal will be possible.

SHAMES CROWS WITH MODERN WOMAN'S GARB.

Marquette, Wis., June 23.—That he successfully frightened crows, who fled in shame from a figure portraying modern femininity in its silt skirt and peacock attire, is the claim of Howard Smithson, who found the old fashioned masculine style scarecrow no longer useful in his cornfield.

He was led after a trip to the city to garb a scarecrow in a silt, diaphanous, lacy skirt, low cut neck. The crows fled.

CONGRESS MUST FINISH BUSINESS

President Wilson Firm in Stand as Ever.

BUSINESS MEN PLEADING.

They Want Session Brought to End. Congress Decides to Appropriate $100,000 to Investigate Manufacturing Conditions in Foreign Lands. This Sum Will Provide Good Jobs.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, June 23.—[Special.]—Congress wants to adjourn and the business men of the country want congress to adjourn. The president is standing out and the presumption is that the people of the country will stand with him and support him in the demand that congress finish the business of the session before it adjourns and leaves the senators and members free to go home and seek re-election.

A member of the house told me the other day that he had a petition approved by all the banks of his state, which is south of Mason's and Dixon's line and therefore largely Democratic, requesting that congress adjourn and pass no more legislation relating to business. He also had a petition from the newspapers of the state, three-fourths of whom are Democrats, along the same lines. The presumption is that business generally is asking that congress adjourn.

The president seems to be as firm as he was last summer when congress wanted to adjourn without passing the currency bill. He kept them here and merged the special session into the regular session. That may happen with this session and the second regular session which begins the first Monday in December.

Second Class Mail Rates.

The proposition to legislate in regard to railway mail pay also brings up the question as to whether an increase in second class rates will not be coupled with the proposed legislation. Senator Cummins of Iowa recently called attention to the fact that former Postmaster General Hitchcock had asserted that the present second class rate was a subsidy to the newspapers and periodicals. The senator was endeavoring to show that free tolls for American ships was no more iniquitous because it was called a subsidy than that which was given to newspapers and periodicals under the present laws nor any more than the large appropriations which are given for agricultural purposes. At the same time the senator insisted that the present rate on second class matter was a good thing.

McAdoo Caught On.

It seems that a number of banks were found to be short of gold coin and gold certificates necessary to comply with the new currency law. Consequently these banks sent quantities of one, two and five dollar bills to the treasury department and requested that in exchange for them they be given tens and twenties. The bankers happened to know that in the treasury at that particular time the only tens and twenties were greenbacks or gold certificates. The result was that the banks received these "good as gold" notes and were ready for the currency act. In time Secretary McAdoo got wise. He saw what was going on, and he gave directions for an immediate emergency printing of ten dollar silver certificates with which to meet the demand from the banks that were getting paper currency as good as gold.

Some Good Jobs.

Congress has decided to appropriate $100,000 for commercial attaches for the department of commerce who will be sent into foreign lands to investigate conditions relating to manufacturing, industries and trade. This will provide nice jobs and good vacations for quite a number of "good men and true." For many years all the available commercial information has been gathered up by the present consular service and would no doubt continue to do this work. But it is not the first time that foreign berths have been provided for faithful party workers. The Republicans looked after their own workers in this regard when they were in power.

Gallinger Had Better Watch Out.

Senator Overman of North Carolina has introduced a bill, coupled with an appropriation, for the erection of a memorial to Walter Raleigh in the city of Raleigh. He will get it, too, if Senator Gallinger does not watch it. It has been the complaint of Senator Gallinger that North Carolina has been able to get about four monuments to one accord to New Hampshire. The New Hampshire senator never looked into the matter deep or he would have discovered that in the house of representatives North Carolina had a member on the committee which handled these matters and never allowed the Tar Heel State to get left.

Sensor Borah Objects.

Sensor Borah of Idaho objects very seriously to the use of the stop watch or time measuring devices in regard to government employees. He has introduced a bill to prevent the systems which many men think work for efficiency, but which are complained of very bitterly by government employees. Borah will get the legislation if he is as successful as he usually is in such matters.

TAKE TROUBLES TO WILSON

Turkey and Greece Appear to Be Preparing for War.

Washington, June 23.—With the Turkish government formally protesting against the proposed sale of the American battleships Mississippi and Idaho to Greece rumblings of war between Greece and Turkey were carried to the White House.

The diplomatic representatives of the two countries called on President Wilson within a few minutes of each other, one to urge and the other to oppose the warship deal.

Greece takes the position that if she buys the vessels the balance of power in the Mediterranean will be preserved and peace maintained, while Turkey contends that peace can best be guaranteed by the refusal of the United States to aid in augmenting her rival's naval forces.

DIFFERENCE IN MAPS CAUSE OF DISASTER

Commanders Unable to Show Wreck's Location.

Quebec, June 23.—That neither Captain Kendall of the ill fated Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Ireland nor Alfred Tuftenes, first officer of the Storstad, has indicated on maps the spot where a government investigator says the shattered hull of the liner now lies, was the most important point of testimony heard by the Dominion commission investigating the collision.

This developed when Captain Gagnon of the department of marine and fisheries was called upon to establish the position of the hull.

Captain Gagnon first drew his record of the position of the Empress on the British admiralty map.

It was then found that Captain Kendall and First Officer Tuftenes had used United States maps and that there is a discrepancy between the points they indicated as the resting spot of the liner and the point indicated by Captain Gagnon as her grave.

Captain Gagnon then marked the spot where the collision occurred on the map used by Tuftenes.

ONE KILLED AND TWO HURT

Cattle and Sheep Rangers Engage in Battle.

Golden Dale, Wash., June 23.—Cattlemen and sheepmen fought out an old feud of the plains near Grand Dalles until one man was killed and two were injured seriously. A telephone appeal from Waukiacus for physicians was the first news of the trouble. The sheriff went along with the doctors.

According to the telephone message sheep herders employed by Leo Brune, a wealthy sheepman, were called from their tents and fired upon by masked men.

The onslaught demoralized them and a flock of sheep was stampeded into the timber and slaughtered by the night riders.

The attack is the second on this camp within ten days and both were preceded by warning that the sheep must be kept off the ranges heretofore used by cattle.

INTENDS MOVING ON MEXICO CITY

ACTION DELAYS LIQUOR LID

Attorneys Ask Rehearing in Northern Minnesota Case.

Washington, June 23.—Leave to file a motion for rehearing of the Bemidji liquor cases was granted to attorneys representing Minnesota liquor interests by the supreme court.

The effect of this action is to delay until the court reconvenes in October issuance of the mandate enforcing the prohibition against liquor selling in the Minnesota territory covered by the Chippewa treaty of 1855, according to those familiar with supreme court procedure.

The request filed was for thirty days in which to file the motion for a rehearing.

RAILROADS ARE NOT LIABLE FOR INJURIES.

Washington, June 23.—Railroads are not liable for injury to interstate employees or members of their families riding on passes which contain stipulations that the passenger assumes all risks while being so transported.

The supreme court so decided and held that a pass is not to be regarded as part of the compensation for which the employee works, but is in reality free and subject to any conditions the railroad may impose.

General Villa Will Ignore Carranza's Orders.

TO ATTACK ZACATECAS FIRST

Should His Arms Prove Victorious There Villa Will Proceed South at the Earliest Possible Moment Regardless of What Steps Carranza May Take.

Eagle Pass, Tex., June 23.—General Villa is determined to complete the absolute defeat of Huerta and fight his way at the head of his army into Mexico City, irrespective of the action General Carranza may take, according to reports brought to the border by travelers arriving from Torreon and Monterey. These reports state that after Villa occupies Zacatecas he will push on south without waiting for troop movements other than those under his own direct control.

At Saltillo it is reported that General Trevino, chief of staff of Carranza, soon will be assigned to field duty and will command a brigade in the attack on San Luis Potosi. General Eduardo Hay, who has been with General Obregon's command on the west coast, is expected to succeed Trevino as chief of staff.

This change, it is understood, is part of the plan to heal the breach between Villa and Carranza. The retirement of General Trevino, one of Carranza's private secretaries, who left Saltillo a few days ago for Washington, and Isador Fabel, acting secretary of foreign affairs, also is anticipated.

It was said by arrivals from Torreon that Major Pardo of General Villa's personal staff went to Saltillo, but the object of his mission was not made public. Major Pardo's name was closely connected with stories of the death of the Englishman, William H. Benton, some months ago.

HIGH LICENSE ELIMINATES SIX

$1,000 Annual Saloon License Takes Effect July 1—Twenty Apply
For License

CITY REFUNDS BALANCE DUE

Under the Alderman Law Brainerd is Entitled to Twenty-Eight Saloons

High license in Brainerd, $1,000 annually for a saloon to do business, has eliminated six out of the twenty-six saloons in the city.

Those making application for license under the $1,000 schedule and whose notices are being published in the Dispatch, the official paper of the city, are C. P. McLean of 123 Kindred street; F. B. Winslow of 721 Laurel St.; Theodore Prescott of 714 Front St.; W. T. Larrabee of 424 Front St.; John Coates Crouley Co. of 702 Laurel St.; Jerry Crowley of 121 Kindred St.; Henry Wise of 510 Laurel St.; James Theodore of 612 Laurel St.; O. Herbert Johnson of 322 Front St.; Henry Betzold of 711 Laurel St.; W. J. Wilson of 504 Front St.; John Hughes of 109 Kindred St.; J. P. Olson of 718 Front St.; Nelson and Knudson of 724 Laurel St.; Holz & Rau of 229 South Broadway; Frank Wolvert of 418 Front St.; Andrew Carlson of 216 South Fifth St.; William S. Brady of 606 Front St.; Geo. R. West of 213 South Sixth St.; A. A. Davis of 606 Laurel St.

The six who have not applied for license under the high rate are E. W. Dunn who is advertising his stock for sale; Henry Thevot, Iver Holden, Tom McIntyre, Tom Bosley and August Miller.

The license has been $500 annually for many years and with 26 saloons doing business the city realized a revenue of $13,000. Now with 20 saloons at $1,000 each, providing they all continue to run, the city will realize $20,000 annually. Under the provisions of the Alderman law the city is entitled to 28 saloons.

In addition to high license another disturbing factor in the saloon business is the Indian treaty ruling of the United States Supreme Court and the conjecture as to how the Indian bureau will enforce it, whether according to the strict letter as "Pussy-foot" Johnson did or according to a rule of reason.

MEET WEDNESDAY EVENING

Chamber of Commerce Meeting June 24 to Consider Bylaws, Fourth of July, Etc.

The Chamber of Commerce meeting tomorrow evening at the Chamber of Commerce rooms in the Iron Exchange building should be largely attended. Important questions are to be brought up. There is the adoption of the bylaws. There is the completion of the incorporation of the organization.

The Chamber will be asked to take action on the Fourth of July program. If individual members object to the circulation of a petition for funds before the Chamber of Commerce is incorporated, then let the Chamber do something, otherwise Brainerd will have a sorry Fourth.

The committee investigating the Minneapolis, Mille Lacs and Northern railway will make its report.

LOSE CONVENTION

Royal League Will not Hold State Convention at Crosby, Changing to Duluth

Members of the Royal League of West Duluth will not go to Crosby this year to attend the annual convocation of the lodge, says the Duluth Herald. The reason given is that Crosby went "dry." Because of that fact the state convention will be held this year in Duluth.

It is not that members of the Royal League are addicted to the liquor habit and the lack of getting liquor is preventing them from holding their convention at Crosby, they say. But it is because the town went dry and thereby put out of business the paying end of the hotel business leaving the place without hotel accommodations for the visitors.

H. H. Stone, special deputy for the lodge in Duluth said this morning that it would be impossible for the members to be accommodated with lodging and meals during the two convention days and the idea of holding the convention there had to be abandoned.

The West Duluth and Pocahontas councils will meet tomorrow night at the West Duluth Commercial club rooms for the purpose of electing officers as well as delegates to the convention. Plans will also be made to assist Zenith and Ruth councils in entertaining the delegates to the convention. The state meet will be held the latter part of July.

An Old Acquaintance.

A resourceful girl, having danced a pink party frock to ribbons, took what was left of it and made a wonderful lamp shade. The next evening she was entertaining a caller in the soft light and she said to him quite casually: "How do you like my new lamp shade?"

William regarded it for a moment critically, then he said: "The last time I saw that shade I danced with it."—New York Post.

In the closing hours of the annual national convention of the Lutheran Free Church of America these resolutions were adopted:

"Resolved by the Lutheran Free Church assembled in its 18th annual convention at Brainerd, Minn., June 17th to 23rd to extend to the people of Brainerd our heartfelt thanks for their hospitality.

"Our special thanks are due the Bethlehem church and its pastor, M. L. Hostager for providing such satisfactory entertainment and a commodious and convenient meeting place for the convention.

A. OETEDAL,
CLAUS MORGAN,
Committee on Resolutions

REV. M. L. HOSTAGER
Chairman local committee on arrangements. Specially mentioned in resolutions adopted by the convention.

A budget of $20,000 for home missions was favorably voted on.

The Oak Grove Lutheran ladies seminary, of Fargo, N. D., is to be aided by subscriptions of the churches amounting to $20,000.

The ministerial union was asked to form a pension association for ministers and professors. A fund is also to be established for the widows and children of professors and ministers.

On Sunday, July 26, churches of the Free Church are to have a day of general offering for home missions.

The consolidation of Columbia college and Bethania college of Everett, Wash., was declared impracticable and untimely.

Rev. E. O. Larson, Wilmar and Mr. T. Brekke, Aneta, N. D., were elected school directors of Augsburg seminary.

Rev. W. Hagen, Minneapolis, was elected a member of the committee on ritual and liturgy.

A collection was taken last night for the benefit of the poor congregations on the Red Lake reservation to aid them in building a church.

An "In Memoriam" committee reported through Rev. Rufsvold and remembered the late Rev. N. G. Nelson, Moose Lake; the late Mrs. C. M. Tollefson, wife of Rev. Tollefson, Madelia; short sketches being given of each, after which prayer was offered by Prof. Harbo.

The selected writings of the late Prof. George Sverdrup were recommended to the people. The books are published by the Free Church Book Concern.

A committee of three was selected to formulate plans whereby the church would have more control over the Folkeblad, the official organ of the church, and the Free Church Book Concern.

Four ministers were remembered as jubilants, having been ordained 25 years ago, being Rev. E. E. Gynild, Wilmar; Prof. E. P. Harbo, Minneapolis; Rev. E. Tau, Napoleon, N. D.; Rev. E. O. Ostgulen, Roseau, Minn.

A transportation committee was elected to consult with the railways regarding special trains and rates for Marinette, Wis., where the convention meets next year. On this committee are Rev. C. Norberg, Rev. A. Oettedahl and Dr. Roan.

The music committee elected is Rev. M. Bjornson, Rev. O. L. Anderson and Rev. J. M. Halverson, of Ashland, Wis., a brother of Attorney Gustav Halverson of Brainerd.

Diplomacy.

"You persuaded your husband to join a glee club?"
"Yes," answered Mrs. Biggins; "when he starts to sing at home I can now advise him not to tire his voice, and when he sings in the club I can't hear him."—Washington Star.

Needed Airing.

"What's the matter with you?" demanded Boreen hotly. "I've got a right to air my opinions, haven't I?"
"Oh, of course," replied Brightly. "They're so stale and musty they certainly need something of that sort."—Philadelphia Press.

The clothing of our minds certainly ought to be regarded before that of our bodies.—Steele.

FOUND NOT GUILTY

Jury in District Court Brings in Verdict in Harry Reineohl Case
Tried Before Stanton

The jury in the district court, Judge C. W. Stanton presiding, brought in a verdict of not guilty in the case of Harry Reineohl, of Deerwood, accused of a statutory offense. Reineohl was defended by Attorneys Charles W. Russell and W. H. Crowell.

On Saturday morning, shortly after the verdict was read, dismissals were entered as to the other cases pending and the motion of County Attorney G. S. Swanson, the reply of the court, etc., were made a part of the record as follows:

Mr. Swanson:—If it please the court, there is another indictment against Harry Reineohl who has just been tried and found not guilty. There are also two indictments against Leon E. Wilson, one against Clarence B. Rice, one against Martin Johnson and one against Leslie Robinson, all on the charge of carnal knowledge of the same girl, Mamie Elmore. We have now tried two cases and there have been no convictions in either case. They have received the very best attention both on the part of the prosecution, the jury, the court and all parties concerned and a fair trial has been had in both these cases that have been tried and the cases still left are similar to at least the one that has just been tried and, in view of the fact that there has been the trial of that case and no conviction, and the facts in the other cases remaining being very similar, it is my belief that a further prosecution in any of these cases remaining that I have just mentioned wherein Mamie Elmore is the complaining witness would not be warranted, and I wish to take that stand this morning for I believe that the facts in those cases, being so similar to the ones already tried, will not warrant the expenditure of the money of this county for the further prosecution of those cases. I make this statement in open court and as a part of the record and I, therefore, move the dismissal of the case of Harry Reineohl, being indictment No. 758. I also move the dismissal of indictment No. 759 and 760 against Leon E. Wilson; also the dismissal of indictment No. 747 against Martin Johnson, indictment No. 748 against Leslie Robinson, indictment No. 746 against Clarence B. Rice, all on the same charge of carnal knowledge.

The Court:—In view of the situation and the facts as I understand them and the statement of the county attorney, I wish to say that the court is in accord with the sentiment expressed by the county attorney in the matter and is of the opinion that the motion should be granted and it is granted as to each of the cases mentioned by the county attorney.

Mr. Ryan:—As I understand, your honor, that carries with it the absolute of the bonds in each of the cases?

The Court:—That carries with it the absolute of the bonds in each of the cases and if there are any confinements it means a discharge. I understand there is one confinement.

Undraitis-Bone

Joseph Undraitis and Miss Catherine Bone were married Monday evening at 6 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Mathilda Bone, 601 South Sixth street, Rev. M. L. Hostager performing the ceremony and using the ring service. A company of invited relatives and friends witnessed the pleasing ceremony.

The bride was attired in a gown of blue voile over shadow lace and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. The bridesmaid, Mrs. William Schlange, was also dressed in blue and carried white carnations. The best man was William Schlange.

The house was beautifully decorated. The parlor, where the wedding ceremony took place, was in lavender and white and under a large white bell the bridal couple met the minister, the wedding march being played by Miss Hoffbauer. The dining room was decorated with carnations and ferns.

The happy couple received many costly presents, silverware and cut-glass. After the ceremony a bountiful supper was served. Later in the evening there was dancing and other amusements. Among the out of town guests were Mrs. A. Laverdiere and son, Joseph Laverdiere; Mrs. Charles Olson and two children and Alfred Andersen, of Minneapolis.

The bridegroom is a car repairer in the shops and an exemplary young man. The bride has a large circle of friends. They will make their home at 601 South Sixth street.

The Dispatch joins their many friends in wishing them much happiness and prosperity.

BABY GIRL CHOPPED IN PIECES

Special to Dispatch:

Staples, Minnesota, June 23—A fox terrier, carrying the disembodied trunk of a baby girl from a swamp, has revealed a gruesome tragedy in Byron township, twelve miles northeast of Staples. Later the dog brought to the 12 year old son of a farmer, Mannik, an arm, which like the trunk had been rudely chopped from the body. The elder Mannik reported the case and today County Attorney Ed. Rogers, Deputy Sheriff Mack Kennedy and Coroner E. F. Miskella, of Walker, are on the scene. The baby is believed to have been twelve hours old before being killed.

W. C. T. U. CONVENTION

Twelfth Annual Convention Held at Backus June 18 to 19—
New Departments

The Woman's Christian Temperance union held their 12th annual convention of the Fifteenth district at Backus, Minnesota, June 18 and 19th, with a large number of delegates in attendance.

Several new departments of work were taken up which will be a great inspiration to the unions in this district in carrying on their work during the year. All were enthusiastic over the addition of a Young Peoples department and Cradle Roll, as the work of educating the young minds along this line of reform is most essential if any great result is to be obtained in the future.

The reports of the work done by the various unions during the past year were very gratifying, especially the work among the lumbermen, sick and the poor.

The district officers were all re-elected as follows: Mrs. A. R. Holman, Pequot, president; Mrs. A. L. Thayer, Brainerd, vice president; Mrs. E. Sims, Pequot, secretary; Mrs. F. A. Wright, Hubbard, treasurer.

A memorial service was held Friday afternoon in memory of national and local workers who have been called to their last reward during the past year.

A very interesting program of papers and discussions, and demonstrations of the work of the different departments was given, followed by the Matron's Silver Medal contest, Mrs. P. Palmer of Backus, receiving the medal.

The invitation extended by the Pequot union for the annual convention to be held at Pequot in June, 1915, was accepted.

A resolution of thanks was extended to the people of Backus for the courteous treatment and pleasant entertainment of the delegates during their stay in the village.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

At the Columbia

A great show will be the verdict given tonight and tomorrow at the Columbia. "The Heart of a Police Officer" is the headliner and a real one. It takes four acts to tell the story. Also in conjunction with the above a Keystone comedy will end the program. Nearly 400 people saw the picture last night entitled "The Price of Treachery" and it is quite enough to say that the same company presents "The Police Officer."

A street there is in Paris famous For which no time our language yields, and goes on to tell of the tavern where the genial Titmarsh in the days when he was a Paris correspondent "ate and drank the bouillabaisse."

As a result of that delightful poem tens of thousands of Englishmen have yearned to eat bouillabaisse. Thackeray puts it so beautifully: "The steaming dish of stewed fish that he confures up in his lines—how appetizing it seems! I know that it was quite early in my teens when I first read that poem, and from that moment there was formed in my mind a firm resolve to eat some day of bouillabaisse."

My opportunity came not long ago when I visited Marseilles. It was nearly half past 9 when I sat down in the dining room of the hotel.

"There is no bouillabaisse on the menu," I said severely to the maitre d'hotel. "I have come to Marseilles specially to eat it." He replied that it was not a specialty of the house, but that it could always be prepared. How long would it take? Twenty-five minutes, perhaps a little longer. "But I think monsieur would find it rather heavy at such a late hour."

He was not encouraging, this maitre d'hotel. I did not expect for a moment his suggestion that bouillabaisse was too heavy a dish for half past 9 at night. Thackeray had not talked about heaviness. But twenty-five minutes!

I ordered an omelet.

At midnight, walking down the famous Cannebiere, back to the hotel, I was hailed by a familiar voice. It was that of a friend whom I had not seen for a long time. Gratefully I grasped his hand and told him that I intended to eat bouillabaisse as soon as possible.
And my respect for him was considerably enhanced when he told me that he had eaten some that very afternoon, an hour after his arrival in Marseilles. Here was the true spirit, and I related to him, with some bitterness,
my experience with the maitre d'hotel.
"Well, it is rather heavy stuff," he said. But I brushed this aside, and we arranged to meet at lunch on the morrow, when I should have the best that Marseilles could give me.

There are, as everybody knows, two places at Marseilles for bouillabaisse—
Pascals and Basso's, on the Vieux
Port. We decided on Basso's.

"Bouillabaisse," I said laconically.
I paid no attention to what my friend ordered. No other dish interested me.
But in a minute or so a curious looking mess was set down before him.

"What's that stuff you're going to eat?" I asked.

"That's bouillabaisse," he said, "but it's not mine."

I started. This bouillabaisse, this curious looking stuff, with indigestible looking lumps of fish floating in a billous and oily saffron liquid! I know not what I had expected bouillabaisse to be, but it certainly was not this.
There was a piece of fish which I recognized as eel, and I loathe eels. The broad tail of another and unknown fish stuck up out of the opaque liquid.
But it was the yellow liquid itself which repelled. It shouted biliousness, and the smell of saffron that arose with the steam made me feel ill. Oh, Thackeray!

I pecked at the eel—or it may have been a lamprey—explored the various other fish, tasted gingerly of the thick saffron liquid on one of the pieces of toast that floated in it. But mine was no palate for bouillabaisse. I made the waiter take the mess away and bring lamb cutlets.

But I had tasted of bouillabaisse and was not to forget it. All day long the terrible taste of saffron remained with me. Nothing would shift it: not Marseilles tea, nor many golden becks, nor dinner. In fact, the bouillabaisse of lunch spoiled the dinner. And at midnight, in a cafe on the Cannebiere, my friend confided a secret to me. "When we fell in with each other just twenty-four hours ago," he said, "I was suffering just as you are now. The horrible taste of saffron had remained obstinately with me ever since lunch and has not quite gone even yet. But you told me you had come to Marseilles to eat bouillabaisse, and I knew nothing I could say would dissuade you. But no doubt the bitterness of this moment will fade away, and as time passes you will tell your friends in England how excellent is the real bouillabaisse if only you have it in Marseilles."

"Never!" I would die first!" I exclaimed firmly.—London Standard.

TOPPING POLO—EH, WOT?

"Monte Waterbury a Bloomin' Marster-piece," Says Facetious Briton.

In the course of an interesting story of the first of this month's polo games between the United States and England, E. G. B. Fitzhamon, who was sent over to report the match for the London Times, says in the New York Times:

It may be said that "It's hardly cricket, old chap," for Lord Wimborne to come over here and pull off such a glorious victory, while Colonel Roosevelt is away exhibiting his new river to the king of Spain. But that's where great strategy comes in. That was part of the campaign in which, as every one knows, King Alfonso has been actively interested ever since Lord Wimborne took his players and polo stud to Madrid to rehearse what happened at Meadowbrook.

That final score of 8½ goals to 3 must have looked pretty good in Madrid, while in Lannon—say, old dear, isn't it topping? Eh, wot, 8½ to 3? They will forget all about the militants and spend a fine old crusted and well mellowed midnight. Ten earned goals to four is "some beating," as Jack Joyner, Mr. Whitney's trainer, has taught them to say at Newmarket.
By the way, I would not dare to begin an "article" for the august London Times in this negligible style. No, sir.
If I should Lord Northcliffe probably would have me hurried to the Tower of London to die on the block at dawn.

If every one on the American team had played the same brand of polo that its captain did—what's the use?
There never was but one Monte Waterbury in polo annals. He is what the coaters in London's east end call
"a bloomin' marsterpiece."

Different Ideas.

"I'm paying all my debts. I believe the end of the world will come next month."

"I don't understand your logic. If I thought the end of the world was coming next month I'd order a lot of stuff on credit now."—Pittsburgh Post.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment.

Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market.
It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send

FRANCE IN SOUTH AMERICA.

Its Influence in the Melting Pot of the Latin Races.

South America is the melting pot of the Latin races, and the French influence now seems to predominate over that of Spain. Italy is well represented, especially in strong Argentina.
Brazil seems to be the most polyglot of them all, for here the native Portuguese is mingled not only with the Spanish and French and English, but a great deal of German. In the south of Brazil 90 per cent of the people speak German, and Portuguese is not always enforced as the language even of the public schools.

The large German colonies here do not affiliate with these people as they do with the Anglo-Saxon brothers of the north. They live to themselves, they retain their own language and customs. In Chile, where there are many English, too, the Germans direct the education of the country. Buenos Aires is close to this Germanic group in southern Brazil and feels its influence, though Argentina seems the most united and progressive of the republics in point of literary expression and culture.

French influence also is felt in Brazil.
Rio de Janeiro itself was founded as a refuge for French Huguenots, though they were afterward driven back. In Paris today one hears that a youth is to emigrate to America, but probably it is to Rio that he is going.
There are many French immigrants, and French is required in most of the schools and is next to the native tongue in importance in northern Brazil. Formerly in Brazil Spanish or German always came next to French, but it is said that some of the states now require English as the third language and that Brazilians are proud of their English.—Christian Science Monitor.

Suspicious.

Ernest Vizetelly, who has published a record of his experiences during the Franco-Prussian war, tells a story to illustrate the popular mania for discovering "treason" that prevailed in Paris.

He says that one day a soldier remarked to a comrade:

"I am sure that the captain is a traitor."

"How's that?" was the rejoinder.

"Well," said the suspicious soldier,
"have you not noticed that every time he orders us to march forward we invariably encounter the enemy?"

HOW FRENCH PEOPLE
CURE STOMACH TROUBLE

A household remedy of the French peasantry, consisting of pure vegetable oil, and said to possess wonderful merit in the treatment of stomach, liver and intestinal troubles, has been introduced in this country by George H. Mayr, who for twenty years has been one of the leading down town druggists of Chicago and who himself was cured by its use. So quick and effective is its action that a single dose is usually enough to bring pronounced relief in the most stubborn cases, and many people who have tried it declare they never heard of anything to produce such remarkable results in so short a time. It is known as Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy and can now be had at almost any drug store. It is now sold here by
